GHC Volunteer Recognition Awards

GHC is proud to recognize our dedicated volunteer base, especially those who have made a significant contribution of time, leadership and positivity to our association. Individual awards are presented to GHC members who best demonstrate the award criteria over the course of the season.

Judy Colpitts Volunteer of the Year

This award, in honour of Alberta Hockey Hall of Fame inductee and former GHC volunteer Judy Colpitts, is presented to a Volunteer who has provided outstanding service to GHC. They have demonstrated a tireless commitment to improving the association, they have significantly impacted and/or inspired the GHC membership through their actions, and they have fostered a good environment for players to develop hockey skills or positive character.

GHC Manager of the Year

This award is presented to a Manager who has demonstrated a strong and positive commitment to an individual team. They have promoted good sportsmanship and citizenship (e.g. involving the team in the community), demonstrated a respect for the game of hockey, and provided a good environment for the players of the team to develop their hockey skills/abilities and/or develop their character in a positive manner.

GHC Coach of the Year

This award is presented to a Head Coach who exemplifies the values, goals and philosophy of GHC. The GHC Coach of the Year is a model on and off the ice, demonstrates patience, effective communication and leadership to players and parents. This Coach demonstrates a balanced approach between skill building, competitive play, and fostering a love for the game of hockey.

GHC Awards Eligibility

Any active GHC member in good standing may be nominated for these awards. Elected members of the GHC Board of Directors are not eligible for the Judy Colpitts Volunteer of the Year Award.

GHC Awards Nomination Process

Any GHC member in good standing may nominate fellow members for these awards. A nomination is considered complete with ONE Nomination Form and ONE "Letter of Recommendation" outlining the impact this individual has on the Association/Team as well as how they embody the award criteria. Nominations must be submitted to the GHC Awards Selection Committee (marketing@hockeyalberta.ca) by March 1. Letters must be received by email, and may be in the body of an email or attached file.

GHC Awards Selection Committee

The purpose of the GHC Awards Selection Committee is to review nominees and, based on the award's criteria, select the recipient of the following awards:

1. Judy Colpitts Volunteer of the Year
2. GHC Manager of the Year
3. GHC Coach of the Year

A call for GHC Awards Selection Committee members will go to all GHC Members no later than February. Members of the Awards Selection Committee will then be selected by the GHC Board of Directors and will be representative of the association's diverse membership, demographics, mission and goals.

Recommended Committee Composition

- GHC VP Marketing (Non-Voting Chairperson)
- 1-2 GHC Board Member
- 1-3 Active GHC Members
- Community Representative

Committee Expectations

1. GHC VP Marketing will supply Committee Members with information about all eligible nominees prior to the selection meeting. Committee Members are expected to review all nominee information in relation to each Award's criteria.
2. Committee Members are available to attend and/or accessible by phone for the GHC Awards Selection meeting in March.
3. During the selection meeting, Committee Members are expected to express their opinion on all nominees in relationship with Awards criteria, and make their selections based on the application presented.
4. All information, discussion and comments during the Awards selection process are considered confidential and must not be share with anyone outside the Committee.
5. Awards Selection Committee members will be invited to the GHC Volunteer Celebration.
6. Term of commitment to committee is two consecutive years.

Committee Conflict of Interest

- If a Committee Members has a conflict of interest with any nominee they must state their conflict before discussion of that award begins. Committee Members may be excused of participating in that Award Selection.
- If a Committee Member is nominated for an Award, they may be excused of participating in that Award Selection. The nominee has the opportunity to decline the nomination.
- GHC VP Marketing will make efforts to replace the excused Committee Member for that Award selection.

GHC Awards Presentation

Successful candidates will be notified by April 1 and announced publicly shortly thereafter. Winning recipients are presented with a special plaque at the GHC Volunteer Celebration in April. A commemorative plaque recognizing annual recipients will also be displayed in the Association's trophy case at Max Bell Arena.

Calgary Fire Elite Awards

The GHC Calgary Fire Elite Female Hockey Program hosts an annual Awards Banquet each year to celebrate the achievements of our Bantam AA, Midget AA and AAA teams, staff and supporters.

Calgary Fire Team Awards

- Nominated by the Coaches for each team.
- Most Valuable Player — Presented to the most impactful player on each team in Midget AAA, Midget AA and Bantam AA.
- Most Dedicated Player — Presented to the most dedicated player on each team in Midget AAA, Midget AA and Bantam AA.
- Most Improved Player — Presented to the most improved player on each team in Midget AAA, Midget AA and Bantam AA.

- Athletic Therapist of the Year — Presented to one trainer/AT who supported the safety and development of our players and demonstrated knowledge and passion for sport therapy.

Calgary Fire Volunteer Recognition

The GHC Calgary Fire Elite Female Hockey Program may choose to recognize the hard work and dedication of long-serving volunteers who have made a significant contribution of time, leadership and positivity to our program.

Calgary Fire Awards Presentation

Successful candidates will be announced at the Calgary Fire Awards Banquet in April and publicly announced shortly thereafter. Winning recipients are presented with a special plaque. A commemorative plaque recognizing annual recipients will also be displayed in the Association's trophy case at Max Bell Arena.

Alberta Female Hockey League Awards

The Alberta Female Hockey League (AFHL) will annually present four awards per division and one for the top administrator within our league. Each nomination needs to be made on a separate document and all nominations must accompany a letter of recommendation from the Minor Hockey Association or Head Coach stating the impact that this individual has on their team, their community, and female hockey. The Female Hockey ADM Committee will select the successful applicants based on the application presented; their contributions to their hockey team, letters of recommendation from their Association. The nomination deadline for the AFHL Awards is typically March 1.

AFHL Administrator of the Year

- Nominated by the Minor Hockey Association.
- Given to the individual who has demonstrated passion, commitment and impact for female hockey within their Association.

AFHL Coach of the Year

- Selected by the Female ADM Committee.
- Presented to the coach that most embodies the values of the AFHL; integrity, honesty, hard work, fair play and developing a well-rounded student-athlete.

AFHL Player Awards

- Nominated by the Association/Club.
- Division MVP — Given to the most impactful player in each division, Midget AAA, Midget Elite and Bantam Elite.
- Top Rookie — Given to the most impactful rookie player in each division, Midget AAA, Midget Elite and Bantam Elite.
- Top Goaltender — Given to the most impactful goaltender in each division, Midget AAA, Midget Elite and Bantam Elite.

AFHL Scholarship

The Alberta Female Hockey League annually presents four scholarships; two to graduating players from the AFHL as well as two to young women currently attending post secondary and who are giving back to the game through coaching or officiating. All of these scholarships will be awarded to help off-set the costs of pursuing a post secondary degree at the institution of their choice.

The AFHL receives an overwhelming response to the scholarship fund and recipients are chosen from an extremely deep pool of applicants. Finalists are chosen based on their strong academics, positive contribution to their team as well as their involvement with their community.
